Chester County has the fastest-growing Jewish community in southeastern Pennsylvania; yet it is the most unaffiliated county in the Greater Philadelphia area. Chabad is working hard to change this statistic through its numerous outreach programs.

At Chabad all programs are designed to make Judaism an accessible reality to all, aiming to attract even those who have been previously uninvolved in Jewish communal events. Chabad emphasizes the importance of the individual and the significance of every mitzvah.

In fact, Chabad's philosophy is refreshingly simple — unconditional acceptance of every Jew. At Chabad, everyone is welcome. There are no membership requirements, no fees — at Chabad, you just belong!

Children develop educationally through the Hebrew school, Mommy & Me and youth programs. Adults expand their horizons in classes, lectures and personalized study sessions. Families and individuals add fresh Jewish dimensions to their lives through synagogue worship and community programs.

With our annual dinner, we pay tribute and honor our friends and partners who have been instrumental in helping us achieve such success. We invite you to learn more about Chabad, and we hope to connect with you, involve you and interest you in joining the dedicated people of our extended Jewish family.
